2018 Secondary & Higher Education Fair

I think your organization was really great, the contact with fair organizers was excellent, they were very much top of their organization, so contacting us regularly, getting everything done, getting everything settled, what we got here, really the communication was impeccable. Once we got here the fair set up also quite nice, the size is very manageable for the families, there is a lot of traffic, a lot of interest, also in higher education. The fact that the banners are prepared, everything is set up is excellent as well, because it is very unique form and presentation which is unusual for the fair actually. So overall, really in terms of your organizations very professional, excellent communication and a lot of traffic.

This is the first time I come to StudyExpo in Istanbul and I am just absolutely amazed by organization, we have been wonderful taken care for. In advance during the stay, we feel perfectly comfortable and well look after. The students and families seems to be very kind and I am impressed by the level of English of the students, so we had no problems in communicating with them.

I am really thrilled to be here at StudyExpo, it is incredibly well organized and I have met a number of great families looking to send their children to Canada to study High School. I really look forward to continuing conversations with families later today and we will likely be back next year because of the great connections we have made.
